THREEATE PRIVACY POLICY

Serving your 3D print revolution.

Statement of Confidentiality

This material contained in our response and any material or information disclosed during the discussions of the proposal represents the proprietary, confidential information pertaining to our services, methodologies and methods. Other products and brand may be trademarked or registered trademarks to their respective owners.

THREEATE PRIVACY POLICY

Threerate thanks its users for the confidence given, and promises to treat personal information with due care. This privacy policy describes our use, collection and disclosure of your personal information.

This privacy statement applies to Threerate.com and Threerate websites, services and products that collect data and display these terms, as well as their offline product support services. By using our website, services and products, you acknowledge to accept our privacy policy.

This privacy statement is incorporated into the Terms of Use Agreement and the Threerators Guidelines. Threerate is based in the Netherlands and it is therefore that each agreement between Threerate and the user or customer is governed by Dutch law.

We recommend you to read the summaries below before you start selling or buying items at our platform.

COOKIES

We collect data for research to get a better insight in our clients in order to tailor our services/products.

Threerate's websites use cookies. A cookie is a small piece of data sent from a website and stored in a user's web browser while the user is browsing the website. Every time the user loads the website, the browser sends the cookie back to the server to notify the website of the user's previous activity.

This information gathered by the cookie will be stored on the secured server of Threerate or by a third party. We use this information to see how you use the website and to make reports on website activity in order to offer you other services and products related to your activity on internet. We collect this information through various means such as Google analytics and IP addresses.

Your IP address is an identifier that electronic devices use to communicate with each other on the Internet. When you visit one of our sites, we may view the IP address or the device you use to connect to the Internet. We use this information to determine the location of the device and understand from what regions of the world our visitors come.

INFORMATION THAT WE COLLECT

Threerate collects many kinds of information in order to provide you the best experiences and services on our sites as we can.

When you register on the site, we will ask for your username, password and email address in order to create an account for you.

HOW WE USE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

Threerate uses the information collected to personalise, improve and handle the products and services we offer. We also may use the information to communicate with you, for example, informing you about updates of our platform.

WHY WE SHARE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

Threerate is committed to protect our users and their personal data, and we don't sell, license or rent your personal data to third parties. However we may share or disclose personal information and images with affiliate parties or service providers. We will require these parties to protect your personal data adequately.

You can choose to make another username and avatar on the sites, in order to avoid that your normal data will be shared.

Please note that some of our links to sites or services of third parties that can have privacy practises differ from those of Threerate. If you submit personal information to any of those sites or services, your information is governed by the privacy statements of those third parties.

COMMUNICATION PREFERENCES

When you receive promotional email messages from us and would like to stop this in the future, you can do so in you Threerate dashboard account.

PAYMENT DATA

When you are a buyer on Threerate.com we don't collect your financial information as that information is collected and stored by our third party payment. In case of our platform we use Adyen as an payment service provider.

When you become a "Threerator" we need your payment data to pay you out. When we want to make a transaction to your bank account we will use the following data: IBAN, BIC, bank name and your Threerate wallet. We only store this data in our accounting system (Twinfield). We will transact your wallet through Twinfield into our bank (Rabobank, The Netherlands) to pay you out on your bank account. For the time being we are not able to pay out through PayPal.

THREERATE DASHBOARD

Our dashboard is a service that lets you sign in to Threerate's platform, sites, services and future services. When you create a Threerate account, we ask you to provide certain information. When you sign in to a site or service using your account, we collect all the information in order to verify your identity on behalf of the site or services, to protect you from malicious account usage and to protect the efficiency and security of the Threerate dashboard. We collect the following data of your dashboard: username, first name, last name, street, house number, zip code, city, country, company name & VAT number (in cases of business).

OTHER IMPORTANT PRIVACY INFORMATION

When you have a problem with our use of your personal data, please let us know and we will make all reasonable efforts to meet your concerns. We reserve the right to changes and update the privacy policy. In case we make a update or changes, it will be marked and shall be effective immediately upon posting.
